PARTISAN POLITICS DON'T BELONG HERE.

Anne Walsh Bradley will keep our courts fair and impartial.

Justice Anne Walsh Bradley is tough, fair and impartial.

With over 20 years on the Wisconsin Supreme Court, Anne Walsh Bradley has consistently stood up for the U.S. Constitution and the people of Wisconsin. She knows that partisan politics and special interests have no place in our courtrooms. That's why she's been endorsed by over 100 sheriffs and police chiefs, and the Wisconsin AFL-CIO.

Wisconsin needs an independent court.
